Smartt,

Judge R. W.

Funeral services for Judge R. W. Smartt, 95, dean of Tennessee jurists, were held Saturday in the Smartt Memorial Presbyterian Church.

Smartt, who was the father-in-law of Fourth District Congressman Joe L. Evins, died last Thursday at Warren County General Hospital.

A descendent of one of Warren County's first settlers, Judge Smartt was born July 4, 1873, and had celebrated his 95th birthday on Sunday, July 7, of this year. The beloved jurist had traditionally celebrated his birthday on the Sunday nearest the 4th of July to permit more of his "friends and kin" to be in attendance.

Judge Smartt was a son of George Madison Smartt and Mrs. Cornelia Smartt. He was first. Married to the former Miss Annie Fancher. She died in 1910, and he was later married to Miss Sara Alma Roggl, who preceded him in death in 1960.

Judge Smartt was educated in Warren County public schools and received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Cumberland University in Lebanon in 1897. Two years later he received his Law Degree at Cumberland. In 1942 the university accorded him an honorary doctor of law degree.

He began the practice of law in McMinnville in 1899 and maintained offices there until he was elected Judge of the Seventh Judicial Circuit of Tennessee in 1918.

The judge presided over circuit courts in DeKalb, Van Buren, Warren, Coffee, Moore and Lincoln counties until he retired in 1950. During the next 13 years, he served as a special judge, holding court throughout the state.

Overall, he served as judge for a total of 45 years.

Judge Smartt received numerous honors, both during his tenure as judge and following his retirement. He was one of the first recipients of the Warren County Citizenship Award presented by the McMinnville VFW post.

He was one of the founders of Smartt Memorial Presbyterian Church, and he continued to serve the church as an elder and Sunday School teacher until his death.

Surviving are three sons, Diemer L. Smartt and Robert W. Smartt, Jr., both of McMinnville and John M. Smartt, of Knoxville; three daughters, Mrs. Joe L. Evins, Smithville, Mrs.

John C. Hodges, Knoxville, and Mrs. Richard C. Emmons, South Bend, Ind. 22 grandchildren four great-grandchildren.

Smith, Jerry

Bro. Jerry Clifton Smith, 69, of Smithville, TN, and Pastor of the Smithville Church of Nazarene, died Friday, December 29, 2006, in Mexico.

Mr. Smith was born August 26, 1937, in Carthage Junction, TN., the son of the late Mary Alice Watts and Grover Cleveland Smith. A brother, J.C. Smith and a brother-in-law, Clifton Doyle "Dee" Jones, preceded him in death. He was married to Sarah Forrest Pritchett on December 19, 1959.

Jerry's first work was in upholstery, a trade he did work in until the last few years. He was saved in 1960 and was called into the ministry in August of 1970, becoming Pastor of the Gordonsville Nazarene Church in November of 1974, and staying there for 10 years before becoming Pastor of the Smithville Church of the Nazarene, a position he held for 23 years. Not only was he a Pastor, he was talented as a singer, and he and his brother, Troy, sang with quartets for years.

Jerry went to Mexico with his son-in-law in 2005 and felt the call to go back to Mexico and spread the Gospel there, having left the states the day, after Christmas, arriving at their destination on Thursday, December 28. Although he did not have an opportunity to preach, he felt he was where God wanted him to be.

Bro. Jerry is survived by his loving wife of 47 years, Sarah Pritchett Smith; children, Randy "Bubba" Smith and wife, Arlene of Brush Creek, TN; Bro. Shane Smith and his wife, Amy of Gordonsville, TN; Connie Rogriquez and her husband, Ruben of Brush Creek, TN; Sonja Allen and her husband, Sam of Voalmont, TN; Debbie Brush and her husband, James, of Gordonsville, TN and Linda Pritchett of Smithville, TN, 15

Indian Creek-May 7.

The death angel visited our community last week and claimed the following: Miss Mary Page, a young lady about 20 years of age, died at her home Tuesday and before her friends returned to their homes from her burial her father, Mr. Thomas Page, peacefully breathed his last. On Thursday night the spirit of Mr. Lon Spencer took its flight and went home to live with the redeemed. These three persons were laid to rest in the Chesnut Grove Cemetery Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Rev. A. J. Waller conducting services in a very impressive way. The bereft family and relatives have our sincere sympathy.

Starnes, Quim

Hale's Branch-March 11.

The angel of death came into our midst Friday morning at 7 o'clock and claimed for its victim Quim Starnes, son of B. F. Starnes. His death was not unexpected as he had been in bad health for some time. He was 27 years old professed faith in Christ a short time before he died. He leaves a wife and one child besides father, brothers and sisters to mourn his death. We loved him, but God loved him best and called him home. We would say to the bereaved ones: Weep not for we believe he is at rest. He cannot retrace his steps, but you can go to him where the reunion will be at God's right hand in a world that shall never end. This is a sweet consolation that they have drawn the drapery of their couch around them to dream dreams promised only to those who live up to the standards of christian living. His remains were laid to rest in the Love cemetery Saturday, C. C. Maxwell saying the last sad rites at the grave. C. B. Hale.
